

I am writing to express my strong support for NJ's 'Do Not Call' law, which is among the most strict in the country. The role of the FCC should be to advocate for the public and consumers rather than for telemarketers. This law should not be overturned or weakened in any way.